

Decimo Tercio

Decimo Tercio die mensis Januarij Anno Dni 1806. et computarum entis Anglicane millesimo quingentesimo septuagesimo quarto. Emanavit commissio Elome Collens pmi Superiorisq; nriat in Testamento willmi Willm de Abingdon def. Habentis pte ad e adminstrandis bona, imo et redditu dnt defuncti iuxta tenorem Testamenti pnt Inven minori etate Elome Will filij et executoris Testamenti dnt defuncti bene pte Jurat Decimo septimo die mensis Augusti 1806. commissum est Ad de bonis et pcedat Elonia Collens et Edm Collens non administrat ut ex dictis liquet

Amst
Starkenburg

In the name of God Amen Mary Brackenbury the late wife of Richard Brackenbury made for last will the of July in manner and forme followinge; ffirste I give my soule to my lordes my god, And I give all my gooddes to my husbande, and also the government of my Daughters, And I give to the poore scholars ffourty shillinge to my sonne lancel ffourty shillinge And to poore James my nays sonne twenty shillinge And I give to my poore rosen James ffourty shillinge Vicesimo die mensis Januarij Anno Dni 1580. rursus et recompositum. Erit et Anglicane militum quingentis septuagesimo quarto Emanuelis Comitis Brakenb. pater suus in oriente generosus maritus Marcus Brakenburg Desinit. Habensque ad administrandum ex iuxta tenorem et effectum huius sui Testamenti de bene ex fuit.

Georgij
vrijf.

Vicesimo die Decembris Anno Dni 1574 To be the better prepared for the uncertaine houre of deathe I do declare my last will as followeth, first remitting my soule unto my saviour Iesus Christ, I will that all my moveables shall at the free dispose of my wife Margaret Shombarde respynginge three small ligars as I shall appointe to be distributed by her will, And that she duringe her naturall life shall enioye my share of the Comaundment of kitchary with the appoyntment spirituall and temporall and as to remayne to the Exchequer of waterforde to be employed to the competent findinge of George, Anne, and Ellene Charles meat drinke and clothe, and the rest of my wife if any shall remayne to be employed to the mayntenance of their household, And I provide, whosoever shall take it to mayntaine a good dwale to attende the parish And I do duringe her naturall life shall enioye my share of the ffew of waterforde and the myll called Coleberts myll, And after to the said corporation Allowing my self to Anne Core ffourty shillinge a yere, and to be employed to the mayntenance of a scole, and for the relief of poore prisoners, And that my foster brother John Core shall enioye his share of Crookedon in my starlet gowne havinge one day he shall be able to weare it, I bequeste unto my right worshipfull cousin Germaine John Plummer of Donbyggely my velvet gowne, my ringe with the toppe Rubie, and my ringe with the Cordstone, Item I give to master Anthony the Countesse some my ringe as the talas Rubie and my signet withall, I give unto my cousin master Thomas with ffourty shillinge to make a signet in remembrance of his frende And to my cousin his brother ffourty shillinge a yere duringe his beinge in any prisonarie, I leave the third parte of my share of the Crooke unto my last brother Nicholas wife George's man in an ample manner as John Awerde shall same together with the reservation of Crookedon maynteyninge a good dwale to his I shall desire my wife in recompence toward god of the troubles that have passed betwene

Some Thomas and me to remitte all displeasure and not to seek to put his children from their patrimony I mean their landes And that I bequeath to my lovinge son and dear friende master Antony Power my share of the Crooke during myn interest with all the appoyntment the life time excepted my share also unto M^r Powys and Christopher with the one half of the life for ten years after that to returne to my said son And that my wife during her naturall life shall enjoy the moitie or one half of the other half of the said life for And after to returne to my said son And I leave the moitie of my said wife unto my dear friende master Patrick Scherlocke giving him to let him take no more of my said of helme that I leave with all the appoyntment spirytual and temporall unto my said friend master Patrick Scherlocke giving him in charge the boye Christopher allowyng him a small upon my said farme competent penyng of meat drinke and cloth as also if he becomen sick well ffomestic pomydes for a horse to maynteyne him selfe with all necessarye also upon my said farme Tenne poundes sterlinge yearly to be payde unto my lovinge son Thomas Power during his beinge in the schollie or times of absence to content to pray for me And of this my laste will I make my wife my son my Antony Power and my friende m^r Patrick Scherlocke to put this my will in execution my Exerutors By me George wife, By me Thomas Veron as witness

31

Probatum fuit huius Testamenti coram m^{ro} Willmo Duxbury Legum Doctore Amici Procuratore Cant Commissario apud London pondicimo die mensis Januarij Anno dⁿⁱ 1571 in p^{re}sencia et computacione iudicis Anglicane militum quingentis septuaginta quarto Juramento Antony Power et Patrick Scherlocke Exerutores predicti et Margarete Scherlocke uxor in p^{re}sencia m^{ri} Exerutoris Roberti Scherlocke in huius Testamenti notat Quibus remissa fuit commissario et doctore of fidei admissio eadem de pleno inventario et aliorum et fidei

Lauds deo in Bredus darious missing gone well and good since so in all yo^r affairs as my selfe, wife and I be here god longe to continue to his blessed will and to yo^r most harted desire speakinge gone moste harted thanks for yo^r gentle remembrance before my departure to recompense youe with the like it is not nowe with me, where love of yo^r sonde to be so appoynted that it deserveth the like in court, for the wife to put youe out of doubt of father and mother, brother and sister shall want before youe shall be deserveth of speakinge for as I am assured that I have obtayned at the lordes handes that where I have been my request for the wife I have in court, and recompense of youe as a lot of good fortune which is sayinge to my selfe surely that the lordes have provided for the better maynteynment of speakinge and quietnes of conscience surge a faithful y^e followe, as youe with the wife of your friendes, shall at no time, with the wife of my parte is don, the wife resteth in youe And further I will let youe understande with my determination is for the bequesting of my gooddes if it shall pleas god to call me in the meane time for that my gooddes be forgotten I will if the wife my gooddes come home with me I have shipped in the Primrose of speakinge which is to be understood out hundred and fifty ballitts of excellent good ope oyle I am deserveth, where I refused a hundred rymones for the bargaine I pray god I may finde it in my ope, where I esteeme it may be well worth all charges paid I have hundred and fowntene poundes, And what I have to shippe home in the gooddes grate wone or doe I knowe not for that the shippe is not come, for if she had bene here I wold a trust in e god I mighte a brought this letter my selfe, And as concerninge my small portion, where I have bequethed my debt beinge payde next to the some of three hundred pounde which that was contented I wold to youe by wordes of mouth, where of all I tembe it most convenient for that we have no quarter of our life to let that would be possession that it hath pleased god to blese me with, in some good order according to my mynd for the great quietnes of conscience and stay of my friende, for that I wold be very sorry that should be any thinge sayinge as is daily, for god call man sometime suddenly as it is daily