

whiche I late purchased of my sonne Sir John Butcher knight and of Thomas Bigge and also all my good and chattelle plate Jewells and money not before bequeathed or given my debte and fynes all being paid and discharged I give and bequeathe to my saide sonne Richard Butcher and his heires for ever whome I ordaine and make the saide sole Executor of this my saide laste will and testament and I appoynte my sonne Sir John Butcher knight and my sonne in lawe William Dode Esquier overseer of the same Chaise being witnesses Thomas Ghotbolte Richard Butcher the younger Thomas Butcher Jone Thompson the good wife Sawtre with others.

Probatum fuit huiusmodi testamentum totam magno willmo Debye legum doctore Cuius preceptum Cantuariensis commissario apud London Vicario nono die mensis martij anno dm ab incarnatione milmo quingentesimo septuagesimo quinto Juramento Ric Butcher extri in huiusmodi testamento nominat Cui commissarius fuit administrand etc de bene et fidele administ eadem Acta pleno Jumentario etc Alton etc Jurat.

In the name of god Amen the Thurtenth daie of marche in the yere of our lord god D. Steph^e Cleybrooke after the conse and computacion of the Churche of Englonde one thousande five hondredth thre score and foute and in the Seaventeenth yere of the Reigne of our soueraigne Ladye Elizabeth by the grace of god Queene of Englonde ffraunce and Irelande defendour of the faith etc I Stephen Cleybrooke of London gentelman being sicke in body yet nevertheless in good and perfect mynd and remembrance of my soule and prayse be thearefore given unto almighty god do make ordaine and dispose this my wyl testament and laste will in manner and forme following that is to saie firste and principallye I give and commende my soule into the handes of almighty god my maker saviour and redemer in whome and by the merite of the Seaventeenth person Ihesus theiste I truste and beleve assuredly to be saved and to have full and clere remission and forgiveness of my synnes and I comyttte my body to the earth to be buried at the discrecion of my Executor hereunder named and that donne then I wyl that all and singular such debte as I owe to anye person or persons of eighte or in contynue shall be tenre paid Item I give and bequeathe unto William Cleybrooke my younger sonne all such eighte estate title interest tearme of yeeres and demaunde as if the same Testator have or oughte to have to of and in all those landes and premises lying within the parish of Chelsey in the countie of middelse holden by lease of the Queene ma^{tie} and also to of and in all that messuage or tenement with thappertynce wherem my saide sonne William the younger now inhabiteth Situate withowte Ludgate of London to gether wth my leasde and writinge concerning the same severall premises And further I give and bequeathe to my saide sonne William Cleybrooke the younger the some of two hondredth poudes of lawfull money of Englonde To be paid to my saide sonne William Cleybrooke the younger within six moneths next after my decease vppon Condition that my saide sonne William Cleybrooke the younger shall within thre moneths next after my decease comysse assuer and cleare to the use of my sonne William Cleybrooke the elder his heires and assigns for ever one annuete or pecchie rente of Tenne poudes of lawfull money of Englonde heretofore by me guaranteed and assured to my saide sonne William Cleybrooke the younger and also all such estate and interest as my saide sonne William the younger hath or at any tyme had or ought to have had of in and to the same annuete Item I give and bequeathe to my sonne in lawe George Jackson foete shillinge Item I give and bequeathe to my sonne in lawe Giles fflemynge the some of foete shillinge The residue of all and singular my good Chattelle plate household stuffe eccle moneye debte and other thynges whatsoever remayning wholie I give and bequeathe to my saide sonne William Cleybrooke the eldest And I ordaine and make the saide sonne William Cleybrooke my eldest sonne my full and whole Executor of this my wyl testament and laste will And for certayne good cause and considerat me specially moving I do by these pnt testamēt, revoke disannul and misfinge all former testamēt and wille heretofore by me made and I will that none of them shall stonde in force ne effecte but onlie this my pnt testamēt and laste wille and that in the same maner and forme as I have aforewilled and devised In witnes whereof to this my pnt testamēt and laste wille I the same Steven Cleybrooke have setto my hande and scale the daie and yere firste above written. In me Stephamm Cleybrooke Esq. et de lib fuit pnt testamētum hoc in pnia mei wille. Cutler script.

Probatum fuit huiusmodi testamentum totam magno willemo Devye legum doctore Curie prerogative Cantuariensis commissario apud London Curiesimo die mensis mactij anno dñi ab Inratuato millio quingentesimo septuagesimo quinto Inveniente willemo Cleybrooke Executoris in huiusmodi testamento nominat. In comissa fuit administratio eadē bene et fide huiusmodi administrand eadem. Et de pleno Inventario eadē Actnon per Inrat.

In the name of god Amen the Twentieth daie of marche in the yere of our lord god after the tyme and computacion of the Church of Englonde one thousand five hundredth seventy and some And in the seventeenth yere of the Reigne of our soueraigne ladye Elizabeth by the grace of god Queene of Englonde ffraunce and Irelonde defendour of the faith &c. I John marshall of the parish of Sainte mary magdalene in Barmondseye in the Countie of Emure Gentilman being sick in bodie but of god and perfect remembrance of laude and praise be therefore given unto almyghtie god do make and declare this my pnt laste wille and testamēt in maner and forme following that is to saie firste and principallie I give and bequeathe my soule to almyghtie god my onlie saviour maker and redeemer by whose moste precious bloodshedding I trust and faithfullie do beleve onlie to be saved and my bodie I comyt to the earth to be buried at the discrecion of my wife And as touching the disposicion of all and singular my londe and tenet with all and singular ther appertynne hereafter pntulerie named that is to saie all my londes and tenet lodginge Chambers stables and gardenes in warwike shire with ther appertynne now or late in the tenement or occupacion of one Robert weymsele Esquier and also one tenement and warchouse somtyme in the tenement of one Albert Stager and now in the tenement or occupa tion of one Godwyn and one other tenement above the stables in the occupacion of Adam fute Luthe one other tenet somtyme in the occupacion of dordoun Durny and one other tenet and garden holden by two lettes in the occupacion of m^r ffenshawe and also one tenement in the occupacion of Godwife Dawson and one other tenet in the occupacion of Henry Bottom And one tenement in the occupacion of one Lymie and one other tenement now or late in the occupacion of one Lee And also all and everie my londes tenements and gardenes whiche I now have or holde in my possession at warwike shire All whiche saide londes and tenements above specified with all and singular ther appertynne I will give and bequeathe unto Ellen marshall my wellbeloved wife To have and to holde all and singular the saide messuages houses londes tenements lodginge Chambers stables gardenes and all and singular other the premises before mentioned and bequeathed with ther appertynne unto the saide Ellen marshall my wife her heires and assignes for ever to the onlie use and behoofe of the same Ellen marshall her heires and assignes for evermore. Also I give and bequeathe to Ellen marshall my saide wife all my parte and pnt parte of two closes of londe being meadowe or pasture and one close of londe being curable tontayning in the whole Twentie Eight acres lying and being in the saide parish of Sainte mary magdalene in Barmondseye aforesaide with the moode and undermoode of the saide londes To have and to holde the saide londe meadowe and pasture moode and undermoode