

Mary
Moulson
6

This is the last Will and Testament of me Mary Moulson wife of Edmund Moulson of No. 13 Ainslie Street in the County of Middlesex Gentleman. Whereas by the will of my late mother Mary Woodson of Abberbury in the County of Oxford deceased bearing date the sixteenth day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty two the real estate whether freehold or copyhold and the leasehold estate held under the Bishop of Winchester of my said mother and certain moneys to be retained from an annuity of the life of the person for whose life the said leasehold estate is held were devised and bequeathed to John Griffin of Abberbury aforesaid Esquire and Edmund Moulson in the County of Oxford Esq. My said mother has appointed and administrators upon certain trusts therein mentioned with a power for me in case I should have no issue that I should become entitled to a vested interest in the said estates and moneys under or by virtue of the said trusts to make such appointment thereof by will as in the said will of my said mother is mentioned and direct the death of my said mother the said moneys devised by the said Edmund Moulson have become payable and have been received by the said John Griffin and Edmund Moulson and invested on a real security. And I do by virtue of the said power and of all other powers and authorities whatsoever enabling me in that behalf appoint that the said John Griffin and Edmund Moulson their executors and administrators shall from and after my decease stand and be seized in and possessed of all the real and personal estate aforesaid mentioned subject to such prior trusts touching the same declared by the said will of my said mother as in any way then be subsisting upon trust for the absolute use and benefit of my dear husband the said Edmund Moulson his executors administrators and assigns according to the respective natures and qualities of the same estates and to be conveyed surrendered assigned transferred and paid over accordingly. And I do give and bequeath to my said dear husband Edmund Moulson absolutely all the other the personal estate which I may be possessed of or entitled to and whatsoever consisting of any savings arising from my said separate estate or otherwise in any manner belonging to me and I appoint my said husband sole Executor of this my will and directly revoke all wills by me made at any time aforesaid in witness whereof I the said Mary Moulson the testatrix have to this my last will and Testament set my hand and this sixteenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty four — Mary Moulson — signed by the above named Mary Moulson the testatrix as her last will and Testament in the presence of us present at the same time who at her request in her presence and in the presence of each other have subscribed our names as witnesses.
Geo. Wilson Esq. 11 New Inn Strand — Mr. Noble of Cloudeston Terrace Brompton St.

Proved at London the 3rd March 1857 before the respectable Robert Thomas Pratt Esq. of Dorset and Esquire by the oath of Edmund Moulson the husband the sole executor named in the said will to whom Edmund Moulson was granted limited so far only as to receive all the right title and interest of her the said deceased in and to all such personal estate and effects as she the said deceased by virtue of the will of her mother Mary Woodson deceased bears duly proved in this Court in the month of May 1844 and of all other powers and authorities her enabling her a right to appoint or dispose of and hath in and by her said will appointed or disposed of accordingly but no further or otherwise as having been first proved duly to a Commissioner.

John
Medlicott
3

This is the last Will and Testament of me John Medlicott of Dorchester in the County of Dorset after a payment of all my just debts funeral and testamentary expenses of good cheer and bequeath unto Francis Edmund of Bishop's Castle Esq. my next of kin one hundred and fifty pounds to my next and dear friend the sum of twenty pounds