 granted of all and Singular the Goods Chattels and Credits of the deceased the hearing been first had by Commission duly Administered

In the Name of God Amen Edward, Edward Barlow of Radmedge in the County of Bucks Yeoman being old but of sound mind memory and understanding thanks be given to Almighty God for the same but considering the shorter livity of this mortal life and the certainty of Death and the great uncertainty of the time and wherefore willing and desirous to prevent any dispute that may arise in my family after my death to settle my affairs whilst living and to dispose of such Goods Estates and effects as it shall please God to bless me with in this life in such manner as my best conditions to have quiet and most agreeable to my own Mind and Will and in Order thereto I do declare this to be my last Will and Testament a fullness And First and principally and before all other things I humbly recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God my creator most humbly trusting in his Mercy and through the only means of Jesus Christ my ever blessed Saviour and redeemer that after my soul and body being again reunited shall absent and for ever enjoy everlasting life and happiness.
 My Body I commit to the Earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my Executor hereafter named And as touching such worldly Estates as it shall please God to bestow upon me in this life I do hereby give and bequeath the same and every part thereof aforesaid And in the first place I direct that all such debts as shall be owing by me to any person at the time of my death shall as soon as conveniently paid after my decease
